All camps for ages 6-10!

Big and Small, Tiny and Tall

July 6-10

Children will get to explore the fantastic worlds of Portlock Galleries artist David Moore through his mythical paintings and mixed media projects. Participants will create several artworks from tiny collage gardens to life-sized mythical creatures. During this camp, children will work with many different media including paint and clay!

these exciting art jobs they will also get to design their own movie poster, design their dream theme park, and make up their own superhero costume! Create your own art show at the galleries!

There will be no camp July 27-31 as we prepare for a new exhibition!

Abstract Environments

July 13-17

Diving deeper into the artwork of David Moore, children will explore the abstract environments created by the artist. Children will create their own abstract paintings and mixed media projects through the eyes of various creatures. What does your backyard look like to an ant? What does the ocean floor look like from the bottom of a boat? What would a restaurant run by monkeys look like? It's time to get creative and use your imagination in this class!

People, Places, and Things

August 3-7

Portlock Galleries photographer Stuart Kerner has traveled the world spontaneously documenting his journeys. In this camp, participants will get to create several mixed media projects based on the travels and unique observations of Kerner. Children will learn to appreciate and reflect on the world around them through the lens of the camera and other media including painting and clay.

Journeys through Color

August 10-14

In this camp, children will journey through the fantastic world of local artist Ken Wright. Participants will complete a new abstract painting each day while exploring the exciting world of color. Children will learn how to mix new colors and how they can use color to create moods and affect feelings!

Behind the Scenes

July 20-24

Have you ever wondered where those crazy, cool costumes in the movies came from like Batman's batsuit or Cinderella's gown? Well now you can find out! In this camp children will learn about the many artists who work "behind the scenes" like costume and fashion designers, movie poster artists, animators, and theme park designers. As your children learn about

Every week of camp will include stories, games, and fun in the sun on sprinkler days!
